

Project – Author’s conception of a team of Remtechstroy Group and architects based on thorough research, marketing, and financial analysis of experts done within a period of 2 years for the transformation of the town of Varna into a modern international megalopolis, duty-free European zone, and attractive international tourist destination for year-round tourism and business within a period of 7 years. The Project is divided into 10 key sub-projects- in a larger scale the projects are elaborated in more details with a business plan, analysis, presentations and calculations for ROI, four of the projects are with ready architectural and design drawings for construction and realization.

For detailed information: <http://e-democracy.bg/index.php/2016/08/02/021/>